BUSINESS MEETING SCHEDULED

The next IADLEST business meeting is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, October 13 -14, 2007, in New Orleans, Louisiana, in conjunction with the 2007 IACP Conference.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE
by: George Gotschalk, Virginia Department of Criminal Justice

The 2007 IADLEST Conference in Virginia Beach is now history. For me, the work now begins in earnest. The theme of the conference was no fluke. I selected the theme of “Forging the Future” to continue a reinvestment of our collective efforts in maximizing the capabilities of the organization, setting a path for the future, and protecting the organization while pursing significance.

That is a large task not only for this year but for the years to follow. We are fortunate to have Ray Beach of Michigan and Mike Crews of Florida as team members and in the pipeline to conduct the business of IADLEST. We are fortunate to have Mike Halvorson to serve as Treasurer. We are fortunate to have Penny Westfall waiting in the wings to take over the services as Treasurer when Doug Graves retires in the near future. Our regions are well represented, and many have volunteered their services as needed.

I sat at the front of the meeting room looking out over those assembled and saw so much talent for now and the future. Collectively, IADLEST is a force that has the power to impact every citizen and non-citizen’s life through our efforts training criminal justice officers. While we all have our differences in the manner in which regulations are formulated, training developed, and training delivered...we all have our similarities as well.

One of the issues discussed concerned the NHTSA Umbrella agreement. My concern and the concern of others is our ability to take on projects given the nature of all of our duties. We need to ensure that when grants are applied for and accepted that we have the necessary administrative money to professionally administer to the needs of the organization. That means we potentially need funds for a fiscal agent, a retainer for legal advice, and monies for project management.

I am finding that, depending on the funding stream, those administrative monies can be between 5% and 10% of the grant allocation. We need to make sure in accepting grant responsibilities that we have those funds available to us, and they are sufficient to cover our needs.

The second concern is ensuring that any grant we accept benefits the membership of IADLEST as an organization and the criminal justice community as a whole. If a grant does not benefit IADLEST members, we must question why we have chosen to participate. As a result of the conference, I clearly heard that acceptance of such grants should be a part of the IADLEST strategic plan. We need to ensure that we have a thorough working knowledge of the strategic plan. As is the case with most strategic plans, it is a fluid document. It cannot be carved in stone and unchangeable because circumstances change and issues arise.

I look forward to serving the organization in a new capacity this year and am confident in the membership of the Executive Board and the Regional Representatives. We need to make sure that collaboration with each other is a goal in the forefront. I look forward to working with each of you.

LOOKING DOWN, LOOKING UP, LOOKING BACK, AND LOOKING FORWARD
by: Patrick Bradley, Executive Director, Maryland Police and Correctional Training

On May 18, 2007, the men and women of the Police and Correctional Training Commissions and the staff and students of our resident partners at the Public Safety Education and Training Center gathered to pause and reflect on the sacrifice others have made to secure public safety in Maryland. Following comments by Department of Public Safety Secretary Gary Maynard, Chairman of the Correctional Training Commission, and Superintendent Thomas E. “Tim” Hutchins, Chairman of the Police Training Commission, a commemorative wreath was presented as a modest tribute. Any event of this nature engenders sadness. Looking down we remembered each sacrifice. We lowered our eyes as we heard once again the mournful strains of bagpipes and taps and considered the tragic loss.
Each of our “Fallen Heroes” exemplified a willingness to serve the community. These officers were committed to standing between the forces of crime, violence, and evil, and the innocent bystanders and citizens. They took oaths to “protect and defend.” They answered 911 calls, patrolled the alleys and confronted the criminals. They supervised convicted felons “behind the walls” in housing areas, work details, and treatment centers. They each wanted to effect a positive change. We can not know for sure what inspired them to choose careers in public safety. We can, however, look up. We can raise our eyes to the heavens and whisper words of thanks.

Anyone affiliated with public safety knows that police officers, correctional officers, and other law enforcement employees die in the line of duty. They do not die of natural causes. Their deaths were homicides. We may remember hearing the initial death announcements and the sickening, shocking sensations that overwhelmed us. We remember the pageant of the final tributes. We remember the heartfelt wish that this would be the last public safety officer to die in service to their community. Looking back and remembering renews those hopes.

The Maryland Public Safety Education and Training Center is a place of learning. It is a place where new public safety employees are trained and certified. This is where instructional courses are developed and delivered to enhance law enforcement and correctional skills and, hopefully, make these officers better at their jobs and safer during their tours of duty. These are the officers of today and tomorrow. All of us who work in public safety certification standards and training owe them our best efforts. Looking forward, the best tribute we can pay to the officers who have made the ultimate sacrifice is to recommit ourselves every day. This is the Maryland POST Mission: “To ensure the quality of law enforcement and correctional services through the establishment and enforcement of standards and the facilitation and delivery of training, education and prevention programs.”

IADLEST 2007 WESTERN REGIONAL MEETING REPORT
by: Thomas Hammarstrom, Director, Arizona Police Standards and Training

The western region met on April 23, 24, and 25 at the Bahia hotel in San Diego, California. A full agenda of issues important to the region was considered. Five of the agenda items may be of interest to the full Association.

- The region considered pre-academy physical fitness requirements and standards. It was agreed that this issue is a concern for all members and that continued attention to fitness standards should be given. There was consensus that pre-basic training rather than pre-employment standards may be most defensible and will contribute substantially to the safety and effectiveness of the academy.

- California POST Consultant Dr. John Berner reported on a project he has completed relating to the use of pre-job offer personality testing for law enforcement applicants. Dr. Berner’s initial research indicates that there may be considerable value in using personality testing as part of the peace officer selection process.

- The issue of creating and maintaining an IADLEST list of approved private training vendors was considered. The Region opposed the concept and felt that managing such a program effectively is beyond the capacity of our volunteer association.

- The topic of allowing untrained officers to serve while awaiting attendance at the academy was discussed. Members were sympathetic to the difficulties many states have, both politically and as a resource issue; however, the Region has asked that the issue be placed on the annual meeting agenda and that the Association adopt the position that officers should be required to attend basic training before being assigned to perform the duties of a law enforcement officer. It was felt that such a declaration by IADLEST would be beneficial to POST Directors seeking to change the practice in their home states.

- Nevada Director Dick Clark discussed the 2009 annual conference to be held in Reno. Western region members unanimously volunteered to assist Nevada POST with the conference by providing staff and other resources.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

Law Enforcement Driver Training Reference Guide

Published by National Highway Traffic Safety Administration

NHTSA has released the 2007 edition of the Law Enforcement Driver Training Reference Guide. The publication is distributed in a CD format. Copies of the Guide are available from NHTSA.
National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) has developed a law enforcement course addressing issues related to older drivers. Although most elderly drivers operate motor vehicles safely, an increasing number of highway crashes are attributable to factors such as dementia, Alzheimer’s disease, stroke, and other similar impairments. Instructor manuals, trainee manuals, training vignettes and scenarios are available free of charge. Instructors can get the training package by contacting their NHTSA regional office. Regional offices can be identified by accessing http://www.nhtsa.dot.gov/nhtsa/whatis/regions/.

Course Syllabus: Research indicates that law enforcement officers are experiencing a lack of skill and resources to positively interact with people who have common age-related impairments. Often, officers fail to recognize those impairments that seriously affect a driver’s ability to safely operate motor vehicle.

NHTSA, the Traffic Safety Institute (TSI), and law enforcement subject matter experts have developed an “Older Driver Law Enforcement Course” intended for street officers and designed to address the issue of the older driver. The 3.5-hour course includes the following modules:

- Reasons to Care – a primer on demographics, and crash and fatality data
- Understanding Aging Factors – a background on age-related impairments, how they can affect driving, and how to communicate effectively with older people.
- Conducting the Traffic Stop – a review of the importance of stopping violators, a caution against bias-based policing, and cues for identifying special needs or concerns related to older driver traffic stops.
- Making Referrals – a review of how to effectively refer at-risk older drivers to resources in the community, with special emphasis on completing the State licensing referral form.
- Older Driver Community Relations Programs – a brief summary of how to go beyond this course and to improve law enforcement relations and relations with seniors.

Becoming an Exemplary Peace Officer: An Introduction to Peace Officer Training and Becoming an Exemplary Peace Officer: The Guide to Ethical Decision Making
By: Michael Josephson

Josephson Institute, in cooperation with the California Commission on Police Officer Standards and Training, has introduced a suite of books that develop the concept of the Exemplary Police Officer and integrates ethical considerations and effective decision-making strategies into basic academy training and field operations. A California POST editorial review committee helped produce these materials.

Becoming an Exemplary Peace Officer: An Introduction to Peace Officer Training and Becoming an Exemplary Peace Officer: The Guide to Ethical Decision Making (Josephson Institute, 2006) is a two-part resource that educates and equips academy students with skills to assist them in making insightful decisions in the field that result in long-term resolutions of problems encountered by peace officers serving our communities. The books have been integrated into training at academies throughout California. They are currently available for use outside California through Josephson Institute.

About Josephson Institute: A nonpartisan and nonsectarian 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, it is funded by individual memberships and gifts, foundation and corporate grants, fees and contributions for services, and sales of publications, curricular materials, and other products. The Institute founded and administers the country’s most widely implemented and successful character-education program, CHARACTER COUNTS!, as well as the Pursuing Victory With Honor sportsmanship campaign, the Foundations for Life essay program, the Honor Above All academic integrity initiative, and many other projects.

IADLEST POST-NET UPDATE
by: Raymond Franklin, Assistant Director, Maryland Police and Corrections Training

IADLEST Newsletter: The IADLEST Newsletter is now available online. To view it, just click on the new link on the left side of our public web site at http://www.iadlest.org. You will currently find both January and April 2007 publications. You will require the Adobe Acrobat Reader to read or print them. This free software may be downloaded from http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2.html.

BJA Grant Audit: The final report from our recent USDOJ OJP site visit and grant audit has been issued. As expected, five recommendations were made. They are: (1) Establish a financial policies and procedures manual consistent with the Code of Federal Regulations; (2) Establish financial controls and better separate duties; (3) End commingling of grant funds; (4) Maintain a ledger that tracks expenditures by approved budget category; and (5) Secure grant modification approval to more appropriately cover meal costs associated with last year's Certification Roundtable. A formal response to the recommendations has been submitted and reported upon at the Virginia Conference in Virginia Beach.

IADLEST E-Mail and Listserv Changes: A grant modification has been approved enabling the purchase of a spam firewall and filter device for IADLEST mail services. Installation of this software should greatly reduce abuse of our group mail services. In addition, other procedural changes will be implemented in the next few months restricting use of our special listserv addresses.

Homeland Security Grant Application: The Department of Homeland Security recently announced the availability of competitive training grant funds for 2008. With only a two-week window of opportunity, I prepared a non-binding concept paper for an IADLEST-administered project entitled, "Homeland Security Community Leadership Program." The proposal would fund development of a scenario based training package suitable for POST or statewide academy delivery to community leaders in conjunction with law enforcement executives.

The concept paper is presently available for your review at http://www.iadlest.org/HSCLP.pdf. Additional information on the proposal will be provided at our upcoming Conference in Virginia Beach. Should IADLEST be requested to submit a formal application, Executive Committee approval must be provided.

National Decertification Index: Our index currently contains over 9,000 records, thanks greatly to a large submission of recent data by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. To see how many records are currently in the system, just go to http://www.pocis.net. The number of records indicated at the center of the screen is now automatically updated. Continuing federal funding must be sought to continue database operation, until such time as a self-sustaining financial basis is established.

Proposed XML Standard and Data Model: As discussed in the previous issue, I have proposed development of a national, open standard for certification and training data management. This XML based model relates closely to the objectives of the Decertification Index project and could be included within a renewal funding application. There is greater explanation of the background, nature, and potential benefits of this initiative at http://www.pocis.net/post-xml-final.pdf.

I will discuss this possible initiative in greater detail at the upcoming Spring Conference in Virginia Beach and introduce a resolution of support for the concept. You may view the draft resolution at http://www.iadlest.org/XMLResolution.pdf.

Sobriety Testing Resource Center: The National Sobriety Testing Resource Center, funded by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, now boasts over 4,400 registered users. The Center continues to receive accolades from its many users. Here's the latest: "Thank you very much. We use the information from you site with great regularity and we can always count on finding what we need there." The project is currently slated for re-solicitation and award effective October 1.

Department of Redundancy Department: I am generally available on Wednesdays from 1:30 to 7:30 pm ET to update your state information and links, answer questions about using the system, and generally support your Internet endeavors. Call anytime if it is urgent. My telephone number is 410-875-3604. You may e-mail me at rfranklin@iadlest.org or page me via e-mail at pager@rayfranklin.com. Please keep pages to 25 words or less.

This project was supported by cooperative agreement 97CKWXK0022 / 2002CKWXK045 / 2003CKWX1072 / 2004CKWXK010 / 2005CKWXK010 awarded by the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services, U.S. Department of Justice. SPECIAL OLYMPICS SILENT AUCTION
by: George Gotscalk, Virginia Department of Criminal Justice

Those of you who attended this year’s conference in Virginia Beach know that a silent auction was conducted and the proceeds were designated to benefit “Special Olympics.” We did something a little different this year. At the banquet, the names of each member state had been placed in a glass bowl at the head table. One state name was drawn to be the recipient of the proceeds of the auction to give to Special Olympics on behalf of the IADLEST POST of that state. West Virginia was drawn and, therefore, selected as the state to make the donation. I have contacted West Virginia to advise them that a check from IADLEST in the amount of $1,762. made to “Special Olympics” would be on their way to them in the near future. The checks have been mailed to Doug Graves to deposit, and Doug will write one check for West Virginia to present. Norb Federspiel of West Virginia was particularly pleased. Norb advised that they have just finished their campaign drive for “Special Olympics,” and he would make sure that IADLEST was properly recognized. Chuck Sadler was away on vacation. This is just a short note to update and thank each of you present for your participation.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: A motion was made by Eriks Gabliks, Oregon, and seconded by Lee Goldman, Maryland, to approve the minutes of the Business Meeting held on October 14-15, 2006. The minutes were published in the IADLEST April 2007 newsletter. The minutes were approved unanimously.

AUDIT COMMITTEE’S REPORT: Michael Crews, Florida, served as chairperson of the Audit Committee with Tom Flaherty, Connecticut, and Penny Westfall, Iowa, serving as members. The submitted material was reviewed as presented. There were some breaks found in check numbers. Follow-up information provided by Doug Graves clarified the numbering. There were no further questions, and the audit was approved.

TREASURER’S REPORT: Doug Graves, Idaho, reported that the following amounts were in the following checking/savings account: $8,979.59 is in the Decertification Database; POST Net 010 has $16,973.16; SFST Study Account has $9,216.65; and general account has $119,875.49. The POST NET grant had $94,000 that was spent down to $14,000 that reverted on 2/1/07. A $47,050 balance remains in the second year POST Net Grant. The report reflects a balance in checking of $16,973.16; however, another $40,000 recently arrived. The national decertification index has a balance in checking of $8,979.59 with $100,000 coming for the second year. SFST has a balance of $9,216.65. The Officer Leadership Program was awarded $56,338.99 with no remaining balance in the checking. There is currently no one in the position at this time.

Federal Audit Report: Ray Franklin, Maryland, asked to come forward to address the recent federal audit. Franklin went through five recommendations resulting from the audit. President Bradley has responded to each of the recommendations and will assure the recommendations are met. The recommendations and responses are as follows.

(1) IADLEST should have written policies and procedures concerning finances. The response was IADLEST recognizes the need for written policies and procedures. The Association will develop by September 30, 2007, a comprehensive financial operations manual inclusive of personnel, procurement, and travel policies and procedures, consistent with the requirements of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) There should be greater internal control of grant financial operations. The response was improved alignment of officer’s duties, cognizance, and internal control of grant financial operations will be established. Effective July 1, 2007, all grant invoices will be transmitted to the Executive Director for review, approval, and posting. The Executive Director will then forward requests for payment to the Treasurer.

(3) Federal grant funds should not be commingled. IADLEST has clearly separated all grant financial accounts and will segregate all transactions by award number within the general ledger. Policies and procedures governing account management will be provided within the comprehensive financial operations manual to be developed and submitted for review.

(4) Expenditures must be identified appropriately. IADLEST shall immediately and continuously account for all expenditures within all grants and cooperative agreements, by award number within the general ledger. Policies and procedures governing account management will be provided within the comprehensive financial operations manual to be developed and submitted for review.

(5) This recommendation involved travel expenses for the national de-certification roundtable held in Spring 2007. Breakfast and luncheon costs were included in travel expenses. The audit noted this should have been filed under other expenditures. A budget modification was prepared and submitted.

President Bradley noted that Ray Franklin, Patrick Judge (Executive Director), and Doug Graves (Treasurer) performed well for the audit. Each worked extremely hard to meet audit requests. President Bradley extended thanks to all. President Bradley noted that he had responded to the recommendations and that Maryland will be responsible for meeting responses before October 1, 2007, subject to approval of the Executive Committee.
Michael Crews, Florida, made a motion to approve the treasurer’s report, seconded by Eriks Gabliks, Oregon. The vote was unanimous to approve the treasurer’s report.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE’S REPORT: President Bradley appointed George Gotschalk, Virginia, and Ray Beach, Michigan, to serve on the Nominating Committee. Gotschalk, Virginia, reported that the following names are presented for second vice president: Michael Crews, Florida, and John Minnis, Oregon. The following name was presented for Secretary: Lloyd Halverson, North Dakota. President Bradley called for further nominations three times. No further nominations were received. Mark Gilbertson, North Dakota, made a motion, seconded by Ron Morrill, Vermont, to close nominations. The vote was unanimous to close nominations for second vice president.

President Bradley called for further nominations three times for secretary. No further nominations were received. Mark Gilbertson, North Dakota, made a motion, seconded by Ron Morrill, Vermont, to close nominations. The vote was unanimous to close nominations.

President Bradley invited the persons nominated for second vice president to address the assembly. Michael Crews, Florida spoke to the assembly first. Erick Gabliks, Deputy Director, Oregon, spoke for John Minnis, Oregon, who was unable to attend due to activities occurring at Oregon’s new facility.

PRESIDENT’S REPORT: President Bradley called upon Doug Graves, Treasurer, to present his future plans. Graves, Idaho plans to retire soon after serving 28 years in the criminal justice system. Graves states that he will miss IADLEST and its members. Graves will be presenting his formal letter of resignation as treasurer to the Executive Committee in the near future. President Bradley noted that this creates a vacancy in the treasurer position that the Executive Committee is required to fill until the next election. President Bradley noted that incoming President Gotschalk has identified Penny Westfall, Iowa, to work with Doug over the next few months. Westfall will then fill the vacancy until next year’s conference when a vote will be held. President Bradley expressed his appreciation to Westfall for assisting when requested.

Rural Preparedness – Steve Otto volunteered to work on Rural Preparedness at President Bradley’s request. President Bradley thanked Otto for volunteering to serve on this advisory board.

Otto introduced Linda Mayberry who served 24 years with Kentucky police and is currently Executive Director at the Rural Domestic Preparedness Consortium. Department of Homeland Security funded the Consortium in 2004 with a grant to Eastern Kentucky University. Funding continued into 2005 to set up and develop the consortium. The Consortium is made up of other partners including East Tennessee State University, Eastern Kentucky University, Iowa Central Community College, Northwest Arkansas Community College, and the University of Findley (Ohio). A national survey was done first with regional focus groups. An advisory board was established with the goal of identifying gaps in training and to offering future training at no charge. Steve Otto is the IADLEST representative to this national advisory board and currently serves as vice chair. This board approves each course presented for development before being sent to the Department of Homeland Security.

Survey results showed that all respondents needed training in about every area. The greatest need was for general government officials. Courses were developed as a result of the findings. Another survey will be done in 2007.

The Consortium is hosting an emergency response preparedness summit in Nebraska this fall. Kansas, Nebraska, and Iowa IADLEST members will assist with this summit.

SACOP Resolution Comments – Steve Otto noted that the SACOP resolution passed IACP last year in support of the National Decertification Index. The resolution committee of the National Sheriffs’ Association passed the resolution last year, but it inadvertently did not get to general membership. It will be presented to the general membership in June 2007 and is expected to be passed. The support of the national law enforcement associations for this resolution was essential for the National Decertification Index. President Bradley expressed appreciation to Steve Otto for making this happen.

Regional Representative Elections – President Bradley requested reports on the regional representative elections. Tom Flaherty, Connecticut, was elected as the Northeast representative. Catherine Somers, Illinois, was elected as representative for the Central region. Michael Crews, Florida, was elected to represent the Southern region. Lloyd Halverson, North Dakota, was elected to represent the Midwest region. Lyle Mann, Arizona, was elected to represent the Western region.

Performance Review of Academies – The accreditation of academies was first discussed years ago and initially not pursued. Jeannie Nelson, Oklahoma, reported that a police association was moving to develop accreditation for Oklahoma law enforcement training and requested that IADLEST once again consider this endeavor. President Bradley initiated discussion on this proposal. Michael Parsons, Washington, agreed to assume work on this and developed a draft proposal for development of academy accreditation. This proposal was presented to the Executive Committee. Washington State is working on Correctional accreditation and has CALEA accreditation. The Executive Committee discussed process of academy accreditation and what will be involved. There were several questions. President Bradley hopes IADLEST will continue to work on and consider this project. President Bradley gave special thanks to Parsons for all his work in developing this proposal.

Special Meetings Update

Leadership Conference – Michael Crews, Florida, gave the report on the Leadership Conference. Spears Westbrook from South Carolina coordinated and delivered a leadership summit. Those present heard about many best practices and discussed in great detail what needs to be done collectively in order to prepare leaders in each of our states. The United Kingdom and Canada were present and gave presentations. There was international interest from Germany, Canada, Australia and the United Kingdom in participating in future leadership summits and involvement in IADLEST. Florida will host the leadership conference in July 2008. Information will be sent out as the date approaches. Crews gave thanks to President Bradley for being at the conference.

IMPACT – The IMPACT meeting was held in rural Maryland to determine if IMPACT should be disbanded. It was decided against disbanding and rather to reconstruct the group’s structure. The focus of IMPACT is international. IADLEST could possibly benefit by associating with IMPACT due to its international focus. The formation of an advisory group with 8 to 12 members is being proposed. IADLEST is one of the names of associations to serve on this advisory group. It will be up to the incoming administration to decide if IADLEST wants continued involvement.

PREC - George Gotschalk, Virginia, gave a report on the meeting in Austin of the Prison Rape Elimination Commission (PREC). The purpose of the commission is to explore acts of sexual exploitation by prison personnel/law enforcement. Many persons believe the sexual exploitation is systemic. Some on the commission are looking at the use of citizen panels instead of criminal investigation. Gotschalk suggested looking at the decertification process instead of citizen panels.

Bylaws Proposal: At the June 26, 2006, Burlington, Vermont Executive Committee meeting, a Bylaws change was proposed to require a formal audit of the IADLEST financial records every three years or whenever there is a change in the treasurer. The formal audit would occur in addition to the present Bylaws requirement of an annual review by the Audit Committee. It is proposed that the following language be added to the Bylaws:

> Article 4 – Organization

4.7 An audit of the Association’s financial records shall be conducted with the initiation of each newly-elected or appointed Treasurer, or every three years, whichever occurs first.

Ray Franklin, Maryland, made a motion, seconded by Erik Gabliks, Oregon, to approve the proposed Bylaws change. Discussion followed about what need the proposal meets. The process would need to be started right away with the retirement of Treasurer Graves. Is it necessary to define what an audit means? Executive Director Judge noted that there has always been an audit required by the members, but this is a more formal review. It was questioned if the audit needed to be an external and independent audit. Franklin, Maryland, offered an amendment to his motion to add “full and independent” audit. Gabliks who made the initial second of the motion agreed to the amendment. Voice vote was taken with the Ayes ruling. Dave Warry, Kansas voted nay. These minutes will be voted on in New Orleans for final approval of the proposed Bylaws amendment.

A break in the meeting was taken at 2:27 pm. The meeting was called back to order after the break at 2:57 pm.

NHTSA Umbrella Agreement: President Bradley noted that the floor was open for discussion of the NHTSA Umbrella Agreement. Crews, Florida, reported that this matter was discussed in the South regional meeting. The South region supports the NHTSA proposal. The only request from the South region is that any proposal IADLEST gets from NHTSA supports IADLEST’s purposes and core mission.

Franklin, Maryland, noted that IADLEST is about to make a fundamental shift moving from advisor to becoming producer. This is a significant change in how IADLEST does business. It is an important time for the Association.

Michael Parsons, Washington, made a motion, seconded by Frank Kowaleski, Virginia, for the membership to approve the Executive Committee’s action to proceed with a NHTSA umbrella agreement. There was no further discussion. Vote was unanimous to approve the Executive Committee’s action to proceed with a NHTSA umbrella agreement.

President Bradley noted the next meetings dates. The business meeting will be October 13 and 14, 2007, in New Orleans in conjunction with IACP. President Bradley asked all members to please come to the meeting.
if attending the IACP meeting. President Bradley requested that the membership let President Gotschalk know when they can be available to attend the meeting so there can be a quorum.

The executive committee meeting will be January 17, 2008, in New Orleans in conjunction with NSA.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR’S REPORT

Older Driver – Law Enforcement Training: Patrick Judge stated that an Older Driver Train-the-Trainer course is scheduled in August in Charlotte, North Carolina. NHTSA will reimburse for travel expense participants. IADLEST began work with NHTSA about three years ago on this project concerning affects of aging on driving. The program has been developed and pilot tested and is now ready to distribute. The training is to help officers distinguish between an older driver at risk from the older driver who merely commits a traffic infraction. The umbrella agreement will pass the responsibility to deliver this training to IADLEST.

Academy Census Report: The status of the academy survey/census conducted last year was presented. The survey was sent out by IADLEST in corroboration with the Police Executive Research Forum. The survey solicitation was completed in the first part of March. There were a total of 713 academies that were surveyed. About 50% of the known academies returned the survey almost immediately. Another 25% took some coaching to complete. The final 25% was harder to obtain; however, 96% of all academies responded. This return percentage is a credit to those POST agencies that helped to encourage academies to respond. The last time the survey was administered in 2002 the result was a responds rate in the low 80%’s.

Newsletters Online: The newsletter will be available on-line and in written form. The Executive Director thanked all academies that allow staff or encourage staff to submit articles and announcements.

COMMITTEES AND SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT REPORTS

Traffic Safety – Frank Kowaleski, Virginia: The committee is currently partially granted funded. There were four or five meetings across the country during the past year. Kowaleski was unable to attend the first of the planning meetings. Kowaleski did go to the technical advisory committee meeting in March. Earl Sweeney chairs the Highway Safety Committee.

Kowaleski was appointed to the curriculum review committee for the technical advisory panel that is part of IACP. The charge is to keep the SFST curriculum and RE curriculum current. This assignment ties in with IADLEST mission.

Kowaleski went to the Highway Safety meeting in Colorado that was partially funded by the grant. The “Click It or Ticket It” campaign was discussed. Law enforcement officers are not buckling up as they should. One hundred and ten police officers were killed last year. Seventy-five percent or more killed in traffic incidents. Buckling up is a training issue. It saves lives.

The next campaign is “Over Limit, Under Arrest”. The ARIDE program is now finished, and NHTSA is reviewing. Two hundred and fifty officers were trained in four different states. Improvement in enforcement data after training was presented. It is recommended that this program be incorporated into basic training. This is not a certification program but rather an informational program.

Kowaleski noted that motorcycle deaths are on the increase. One out of four people involved in a motorcycle crash do not have motorcycle license endorsement.

IACP is working on a new pursuit training video. This video should be available soon.

Work zone safety training is available on-line. The commercial vehicle association is developing training that will be available on line for downloading concerning Mexican carriers.

A resolution entitled “Support Enhancing Bicycle Safety: Law Enforcement’s Role Training” was given to the Executive Committee for consideration. The program, Enhancing Bicycle Safety, is on the NHTSA website. NHTSA is requesting an endorsement from IADLEST of this program. The resolution was read by President Bradley. Dick Clark, Nevada, made a motion seconded by Michael Crews, Florida, to approve this resolution. Discussion followed concerning what this training is. The vote to approve the resolution was unanimous.

Technology – Ray Franklin, Maryland: POSTNET services from October 6, 2006 to June 1, 2007 resulted in 634,627 file hits. This equates to 2,655 hits per day which is a 1% increase over last fall. The traffic on this site has doubled over the last five years.

The 2005 Sourcebook is completed. It is available at the members’ website. Modifications to the grant were made so that there could be improvement made on SPAM control. The equipment has been received.

SFST website can be found at sobriety testing.org. It is merely necessary to complete the application form to utilize this information. The usage of this site has continued to increase.

National Decertification Index was converted successfully to the new system last February. Work is underway to open the database for use by police agencies. The first access should be available by the end of 2007. It may be possible for a national police registry to be developed from this index if approved or required in the future. This is a policy issue. A resolution concerning the development of a national XML based data standard for management of certification and training information was presented to the Executive Committee.

A survey concerning teleconferencing capabilities was sent out during the past year. No responses were received from anyone. The Technology Committee would still like to hear from people who have these capabilities.

A request for federal funding has been submitted for a National Law Enforcement Academy Resource Network. An email has been received from NIJ expressing an interest in funding such an endeavor. Franklin just received a call that NIJ is interested in pursuing funding of this project. It appears that NIJ’s intention is to provide 2007 monies to move forward.

President Bradley noted that with this network, America’s law enforcement academies will have the capacity to communicate with each other. President Bradley expressed a thank you to Ray Franklin for the creativity and persistence in moving this project forward in the federal funding stream.

President Bradley read the presented resolution. Erik Gabliks, Oregon, made a motion, seconded by Frank Kowaleski, Virginia, to approve the resolution in support of a national XML based data standard for management of certification and training information was presented to the Executive Committee. A vote was taken with all ayes with one abstaining.

Strategic Planning – Patrick Bradley, Maryland: The strategic planning document is now in place and is being passed forward to the next administration. President Bradley expressed thanks to all who worked on this plan and its fulfillment.

Training and Standards – Mike DiMiceli, California: DiMiceli noted that the committee focused on two issues. First was the feasibility of developing a model of basic training curriculum. A report was presented to the Executive Committee. The model of basic training curriculum may include modalities and suggested minimal time to be spent on each area. Two regions have reviewed the proposal and endorsed continued work in this area. The Committee recommends that IADLEST continue the development of the model law enforcement basic training curriculum, IADLEST explore the availability of a federal grant to support the development of the model curriculum, and IADLEST drop the “clearinghouse” concept for vendor-based training and explore alternatives for widely communicating training opportunities and resources that will benefit the members.

It was suggested to President Bradley nine months ago that IADLEST adopt a procedure whereby the organization could approve vendor-based training. Training approved by IADLEST would be accepted without further review for purposes of continuing education approval. Vendors must currently approach each state for approval. IADLEST approval would carry the same weight as any state POST would carry. The committee had a variety of opinions that are expressed in the report. There was a wide range of opinions. It was the decision of the Western region to oppose further development of this concept. This recommendation is removed from the Committee’s request.

DiMiceli made a motion seconded by Lyle Mann, Arizona to adopt the first two recommendations of the committee. The vote taken was unanimous.

Jeanie Nelson, Oklahoma, provided information of an officer who submitted a request for acceptance of mandatory training hours consisting of 16 hours. This training was completed in one eight-hour on-line course. There were 20 sixteen-hour on-line courses available. All the training was done in one day. Nelson asked if the committee can look at this type of training and give an opinion as to its validity. It was noted that Jim Dozier is chairing a committee on distance learning. It may be helpful for the Training Committee to talk with Jim to see what the distance learning committee is doing and what progress is being made.

Administration – Patricia Melton, Florida: There is no report from the Administration Committee. Melton noted that work is underway to meet recommendations from this committee by various areas of IADLEST (i.e. strategic plan). Melton offered any further services to incoming President Gotschalk.

Elections: The Nomination Committee was requested to convene. It was noted that only members in good standing were eligible to vote.

A request for a motion for an unanimous vote for secretary was made as there is only one candidate for secretary. Michael Parson, Washington, made a motion, seconded by Mark Gilbertson, North Dakota, for a unanimous vote. The vote was unanimous in support of the motion. Lloyd Halverson, North Dakota, was congratulated for being the new Secretary.

Lloyd Halverson expressed appreciation for the opportunity to serve as Secretary and noted that Mark Damitio has agreed to serve as regional representative and requests that the incoming president appoint Damitio, as Regional Representative for the Midwest.

The vote for second Vice President was taken at 4:00 pm and tallied. The nomination committee announced that Michael Crews, Florida, was elected as the Second Vice President. Congratulation was extended to Michael Crews. Crews thanked the membership for their support and stated that he looks forward to serving. Crews announced that Frank Kowaleski has agreed to serve as Regional Representative and requests that the incoming President appoint Kowaleski as Regional Representative for the South.

OLD BUSINESS

Future Conferences: 2008 - Indiana: Rusty Goodpaster noted that the conference will be July 5 – 10, 2008, at the downtown Indianapolis Crown Plaza Hotel; 2009 - Nevada – Dick Clark gave a presentation on the 2009 conference in Nevada at the Nugget Resort; 2010 – Connecticut; 2011 - Washington State; 2012 - Is currently an open date. President Bradley invited interested states to take the opportunity to host a conference.

Sourcebook – Ray Franklin: Franklin was asked to develop an on-line data collection for future Sourcebooks. BJS was approached and has offered to provide all entry of the texts of the questions. BJS has agreed to place IADLEST branding on the web site where information will be collected. BJS will provide all analysis and output (i.e., PDF or paper). BJS also offered to review proposed questions.

Mike DeMiceli, California, worked on the proposed questions. The number of questions has been reduced. There was much thought that went into possible questions with the focus being on reducing and streamlining the process. The content is reduced to questions exclusively to law enforcement standards and training. Sections concerning probation, parole, and other sorts of peace officer designations have been eliminated except for a few questions asking if the POST has responsibility for these officers. Any person wanting additional information on these agencies would contact the agency directly. The new version is down to 200 to 225 questions. The proposed questions were distributed to various locations for review and are now at BJS for input into their system.

President Bradley noted that the Standards and Training and Technology Committees worked well together in making this happen. President Bradley expressed thanks to those who worked on this project.

FBI Law Enforcement Coordination – Dick Clark: Two years ago FBI, through the Office of Law Enforcement Coordination, approached IADLEST to work together on various projects. One of the first projects was to put together an FBI familiarization DVD that would address the history overview of the FBI and recent changes to meeting terrorism efforts. The DVD was delayed because of transfer of FBI personnel. The project now has a new manager. The FBI states that the project should be completed by July with review in August and distribution in September 2008. Keith Lohman, New Hampshire, and Dick Clark, Nevada, worked on the project.

REGIONAL REPORTS

Northeast – John Gallaher, Pennsylvania, for Tom Flaherty, Connecticut: Connecticut hosted a regional meeting on May 2. Vermont, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire, and Connecticut attended. Work hour’s litigation, training, and first line supervision to enhance internal affairs functions, national cold case center presentation concerning forensic work homeland security issues, and joint public/private partnerships were some of the presentations.

Central – Rusty Goodpaster, Indiana: A problem-based learning training and alternative funding sources summit was held in December in Lansing, Michigan. The summit was well attended. A white paper was produced from the meeting and is available upon request.

South – Mike Crews, Florida: There was one face-to-face meeting in conjunction with South Carolina during the last year. The next testing and measurement conference will be November 5 to 8. Florida will host the next Leadership summit in 2008. South Carolina has a master instructor program that awards 3 to 6 hours of graduate hours. North Carolina has received a $300,000 grant for online course curriculum development. North Carolina has developed a CSI certification program and has gained support for a new SCORE facility. Virginia has experienced some K-9 training issues and is responsible for certifying K-9 officers. Virginia has completed train-the-trainer for Alzheimer’s training.

Florida is updating some training material. Florida is hosting a high liability training conference with an open invitation to anyone interested in attending. Florida is opening up its Executive Leadership program to other states. Material is available to any state that may be interested. An Incident Commander CD was given to those in attendance at the conference.

Midwest – Lloyd Halverson, North Dakota: There were fourteen members with seven states represented at the Regional meeting. Kansas requests any information on active shooter policies for campus facilities and is requesting this information be sent to them. The region requests/recommends the Executive Committee obtain bonding for each Executive Committee member. The region gave unanimous support for the NHTSA umbrella agreement. A regional meeting may possibly be held in Oklahoma at its new facility in the spring.

West – Lyle Mann for Tom Hammarstrom, Arizona: The West Region met in San Diego, California in April. The major items was the Standard and Training Committee resolution discussed under new business. Computer-based training and how to deal with it was discussed. Arizona is working with California to address computer-based training. California is working on a project dealing with the physical fitness level of people entering the academy to help assure success in the academy training. California wants to develop some entrance physical fitness testing. There will be a regional meeting in Oregon next year. Oregon has a new academy facility.

NEW BUSINESS

Mandated Recruit Training before Service Resolution - A resolution was presented that IADLEST adopt and affirm its support for a policy that requires the completion of adequate basic training before any person is permitted to exercise the authority of a fully empowered law enforcement officer. President Bradley read the resolution. Michael Parsons, Washington, discussed the resolution and the need for the request. Parsons made a motion, seconded by Dick Clark, Nevada, to approve the resolution. Discussion followed concerning if this question is being included in the new sourcebook.

It was reported that it is one of the questions. President Bradley noted that he used the Sourcebook information about this issue recently when appearing in the media. Vote for support of the resolution was unanimous.

The next General Business meeting is October 13, 2007, in New Orleans in conjunction with IACP meeting. The next Executive Committee meeting is January 17, 2008, in New Orleans in conjunction with NSA meeting.

George Gotschalk noted that the silent auction ends at 6:00 pm.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:55 pm.

3.4 Sustaining Membership

3.5 Complimentary Membership
Each director may designate two complimentary members. The complimentary member shall meet the same criteria and shall have the same status as general members in the Association.

3.6 Eligibility for membership, and approval or disapproval of any request for membership, shall be determined by majority vote of the Executive Committee provided that in no instance shall a request for general, life, sustaining, or other membership be approved without sponsorship of a POST director who is a member in good standing with the Association. The Executive Committee may deny or discontinue any membership for arrears or nonpayment of dues or assessments, or for other action inconsistent with the mission and focus of this organization.

Renewal dues shall be paid by January 1 of each year and shall be in arrears April 1 of that year. New members whose dues are paid on or after October 1 will have their dues applied through the end of the following year. New members who join in the first nine months of the calendar year shall be billed for the full 12 months with the dues to be prorated the following year thereby bringing the billing in line with the January billing date.

ARTICLE 4. ORGANIZATION

4.1 The fiscal year for the Association shall begin on the first day of January and conclude on the last day of December each year.

4.2 The Association shall maintain a corporate and principal office and such other offices as may from time-to-time be designated by the Executive Committee. The Association will be incorporated as a private, non-profit organization and will maintain the appropriate status with the Internal Revenue Service.

4.3 A general meeting of the Association may be called by the president or at the request of not less than one-half of the directors, provided however:

4.3.1. A notice and agenda are sent by mail to each member at least 30 days in advance of such meeting;

4.3.2. The meeting is conducted by the president, or other such officer by order of succession;

4.3.3. A quorum shall exist when not less than 15 directors, or their designees, are present for the purpose of conducting the Association business. Once the presence of a quorum has been confirmed, business may continue despite any failure to maintain a quorum during the remainder of the meeting;

4.3.4. Robert's Rules of Order (Revised) shall be the parliamentary authority for the conduct of all meetings of the Association; and

4.3.5. A parliamentarian may be appointed by the president to be present at each session of the meeting where business is conducted. Any ruling by the parliamentarian shall prevail unless overturned by a two-thirds majority vote of the directors present.

4.4 The president, with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, shall establish such committees as are necessary to fulfill the mission and focus of IADLEST. Each committee chairperson shall be a member in good standing of the Association.

4.5 Unless otherwise specified in these Bylaws, agreement on the business of the Association shall be determined by the numerical majority of all members in good standing eligible to vote, regardless of membership type, who are present at the time the question is called.

4.5.1 Following any vote, any director or his or her designee, may move a "division by POSTs." When such motion is sustained by three directors or their designees, the presiding officer shall allow no less than five minutes and no more than fifteen minutes for the members within a jurisdiction to caucus for the purpose of casting a single vote for the jurisdiction on the matter. The caucus is convened to provide advice and input to the POST director. However, the director, or designee member shall solely determine the POST’s position on the matter. Upon reconvening, the presiding officer shall cause a secret ballot vote to be called. Such votes shall be cast by the director or his or her designee. Tallying the votes on the matter shall be in accordance with these Bylaws. The purpose of this provision is to maintain balance within the Association. As all POSTs are deemed to be equal in the Association, the above provision protects from undue influence upon the Association by any one jurisdiction or membership category. Moreover, the provision also preserves the unique position of each POST’s director in the setting of policy and direction for IADLEST.

4.5.2 Each POST director shall have one vote representing the jurisdiction’s POST in which he or she serves as a chief executive officer.

4.5.2.1. The POST director, and only the director, may designate a general member in good standing from that jurisdiction or another POST director in good standing to vote in his or her absence as a proxy vote. Such proxy designation must be in writing and state a specific time period that such proxy may vote on behalf of the director.

4.5.2.2 A proxy vote for a director may be used for a general business vote or a “division by POSTs” vote.

4.6 The president, with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, shall appoint an Audit Committee consisting of not less than three director members, no more than one of whom shall be from any one region. The audit committee shall:

The balloting process shall be determined by the Executive Committee as the occasion permits.

5.4 In the event a vacancy occurs in the office of president, the first vice-president shall assume the office of the president and serve the remainder of the unexpired term. Should the first vice-president be unable to assume the duties of the president, the second vice-president shall become the president. 5.5.3. The treasurer shall certify that each candidate is a director or general member who is not in arrears of dues and/or assessments to the Association and who is otherwise eligible to hold office pursuant to these Bylaws; and

5.5.4. All nominations shall be voted upon by secret written ballot unless there is only one candidate for the office to be filled. The candidate receiving the most votes cast for each office shall be declared elected. A tie will be broken through additional balloting involving those candidates receiving the same number of votes.

5.6 Members of the Executive Committee shall not receive any compensation for their services. 5.7.5.2. No member shall present themselves as the representative of the Association without express authorization from the president as to the time, location, audience, and purpose of such designation.

5.8 It shall be the duty of the first vice-president to serve as a member of the Executive Committee and perform the duties of the president during his or her absence, including but not limited to representing the Association. It will be the responsibility of the first vice-president to work with the host jurisdiction for the annual IADLEST conference and provide advice and counsel in the conference preparation.

5.9 It shall be the duty of the second vice-president to serve as a member of the Executive Committee and perform the duties of the president during the absence of the president and the first vice-president, including but not limited to representing the Association.

5.10 It shall be the duty of the treasurer to serve as a member of the Executive Committee. In the event a vacancy occurs in the office of the treasurer, the Executive Committee shall appoint a successor who shall serve until the next general meeting when a new election shall be held to fill the vacancy.
