

Alana N. Williams

Alana N. Williams has over 10 years of experience in the criminal justice system, specializing in law enforcement and investigations. She graduated from Montgomery Police Academy (Alabama) in 2009, and served her community as a deputy sheriff corporal for almost a decade before transitioning to teaching collegiate criminal justice classes.

Ms. Williams has been a criminal justice instructor at her alma mater, Alabama State University since 2013. She is an Alabama POST Instructor, sponsored by Montgomery Police Department (Alabama) and has trained thousands of law enforcement personnel to include Police Chiefs and Sheriffs.

Ms. Williams is also a business owner of J.A. Consultants and Training Solutions, where she provides professional development training to businesses, law enforcement agencies, and police academies. Her specialties include addressing community relations and departmental subject matters such as "Workplace Harassment Prevention," "Women in Law Enforcement," "Law Enforcement Culture and Diversity," "Police and Community Relations," "Law Enforcement Contemporary Issues," "Violent Crimes Against Women," "School Safety and Resources" and "Autism Awareness for First Responders."

Ms. Williams' educational background consists of a M.S. in Criminal Justice from Faulkner University and a B.S. in Criminal Justice from Alabama State University. Although born and raised in Cincinnati, Ohio, she has called Montgomery, Alabama, her home for many years.

(334) 721-3970 Office

alana@solutionsJA.com

www.solutionsJA.com