

Daniel Moman

Deputy Daniel Moman is a full-time patrol deputy with the Spokane County Sheriffs Office in Washington State. His additional duties include the agencies Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) Coordinator, Field Training Officer, Taser Instructor, Master Excited Delirium Instructor, and is part of the co-responder mental health team. His primary instructional and curriculum development focus is in crisis response with the goal of increasing safety of response, diversion from jail and local emergency rooms, and a large emphasis on connection to resources to reduce future law enforcement contact. He is a facilitator in the regional CIT 40-hour course and facilitates the sheriff's office crisis training. Previously, he served in the United States Marine Corps as a combat camera man, where he deployed twice, and field instructed new outgoing teams in field operations. He recently graduated from the University of Phoenix with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology.

Contact: (509) 934-7842