

Major David Allen Wulff (Retired), Cary North Carolina Police Department

Dave retired as a Major from the Cary Police Department, Cary, North Carolina on November 1, 2011. Dave retired with over 32 years of police service. When he retired he was the Services Bureau Commander where he oversaw the Criminal Investigations Division, Emergency Communications Center, Traffic Safety Team, I.M.P.A.C.T. Team, Records, Accreditation, and Animal Control.

Dave previously served as the Criminal Investigations Division Commander, Field Operations Division Commander, Crisis Negotiations Team Commander, Training Director, Watch Commander, Community Services Officer, Firearms Instructor, D.A.R.E. Officer, and Patrol Officer. While working in these roles Dave had the opportunity to develop the position of Community Services Officer and Training Director. He also developed the Cary Police Department Citizen Police Academy, and coordinated the Construction of the Cary Police Department Firearms Training Center.

Dave received his Associates in Applied Sciences Degree from Wake Technical Community College, his Bachelor of Applied Sciences Degree from Campbell University, and his Master's in Justice Administration from Methodist University.

Currently, Dave teaches Criminal Justice and Homeland Security in the Undergraduate Degree Program at Campbell University and teaches a Media and Public Relations for Justice Organizations Course in the Master of Justice Administration Program at Methodist University. Dave is also a student adviser, a Subject Matter Trainer for professors at Campbell University and the Program Chairperson for the Associates in Homeland Security Program at Campbell University.

Additionally, Dave is the Security Director at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Cary, NC, and teaches law enforcement firearms and the North Carolina Concealed Carry program.

Outside of work Dave is very active at his church, St. Michael's the Archangel Catholic Church in Cary, NC, where he is currently Chair of the Safe Environment Team, Safe Environment Instructor, a Eucharistic Minister, a Knight Commander in the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, Section President for the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem in the Diocese of Raleigh, and a 4th Degree Knight of Columbus. Currently Dave is in the seminary to become a Deacon in the Roman Catholic Church. The seminary is a five-year program and God willing, Dave will be ordained in June of 2020.

When not working or volunteering Dave and his wife Linda enjoy traveling, fly fishing, and scuba diving.
