

Derrick R. Crews

Biography

Lt. Derrick Crews is an active sworn law enforcement officer with over 20 years of experience. His current assignments includes; Criminal Investigations Division supervisor, Internal Affairs investigator, SWAT Operator/Team Sniper, and Lead Use of Force instructor at his agency. Previous assignments includes school resource supervisor, patrol supervisor, and served as CALEA manager gaining his department's initial CALEA® accreditation.

Derrick is a state certified defensive tactics and physical fitness instructor and teaches this subject matter at two North Carolina police academies. He holds certifications as a verbal de-escalation, impact weapons, and Taser instructor. He has been a curriculum designer for his agency, and for other POST in-service police training programs.

As CALEA manger, Derrick developed and wrote his department's Use of Force policy as well as over sixty (60) procedural policies governing officer's use of force practices and custody issues. Derrick also developed his agency's force training program to include a rigorous reality-based training format to include measurable aspects allowing the agency to track officer performance under stress.

Derrick serves as an adjunct instructor at the North Carolina State Justice Academy. He has received over 400 hours of specialized training to include Force Science® Analyst, and Gracie Survival Tactics Instructor training.

Contact:

Phone: 336-455-2837

Email: dcrews@toknc.com

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/derrickcrewspolicetrainer/>