

Derrick Threadgill

Derrick Threadgill is an active law enforcement supervisor with 28 years of law enforcement experience and training. He is responsible for conducting use of force evaluations, pursuits, accidents, and other incidents involving police officers' actions. In addition, he has also consulted police officers during administrative and internal affairs hearings.

Mr. Threadgill presented at the 40th Annual National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice National Conference, the Region 5 Training workshop of the National Organization of Blacks in Law Enforcement (NOBLE), Arkansas District Court Officers Association Semi-Annual Training and the University of Arkansas Criminal Justice Institute: School of Law Enforcement Supervision. Additionally, he has National Internal Affairs Training and Use of Force Instructor /Analyst Certifications.

Mr. Threadgill earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Central Arkansas and a Master of Arts Degree from Webster University.