

Jeffrey VanHook

Jeffrey Vanhook is a Patrol Lieutenant with the Larimer County Sheriff's Office, Fort Collins, Colorado. He has been employed with LCSO since 1992. During his career he has held many different positions; detention deputy, patrol deputy, narcotics detective, general criminal investigations detective, patrol corporal, patrol sergeant, training sergeant and patrol lieutenant (Watch Commander).

Jeff has been a Field Training Officer (FTO) for the agency since 1998 and was the agency Field Training Program (FTP) Coordinator for 12 years. Jeff is currently the Training Program Administrator. Jeff serves on the National Association of Field Training Officers (NAFTO) as the Vice-President and a trainer. Jeff has taught basic FTO school, advanced FTO school, and managing the FTO unit. Jeff has been a national trainer since 2014 instructing classes across the United States.

Jeff is a Subject Matter Expert (SME) trainer in the Emergency Vehicle Operation Course (EVOC) program and is the agencies program administrator. Jeff is part of Colorado Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Curriculum Committee and previously served on Colorado POST training academy committee. Jeff is a Crisis Intervention Team (C.I.T.) member and also serves as a member of the Board of Directors for Summitstone Health Partners, which is the leading behavior health provider for Larimer County.