

Jesse Depriest

Jesse Depriest is a Deputy Sheriff at the Spokane County Sheriff's Office. He has been in law enforcement since 1993 and has held many specialty positions.

In 2006 he was tasked with designing a training program for a newly implemented state ticketing program for his department. He was the lead instructor until 2013.

He is currently a Reality-Based Training (RBT) training instructor and is the lead instructor for the traffic procedures section for his department. Traffic procedures specializes in standard, high risk and modified traffic stops and the legalities that surround this topic. He was assigned to create and developed a training program for the Spokane County Sheriff's Office Pre-Academy on this topic.

He is a Field Training Officer and is completing steps to teach this subject for the Washington State Criminal Justice Commission (WSCJTC). Deputy Depriest currently assists with training new recruits at the WSCJTC Police Academy in the area of patrol procedures.
