

John Ferguson is an Agent with the Arkansas Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Training assigned to the Law Enforcement Academy where he teaches basic recruit classes. His area of focus is constitutional law as related to search and seizure, criminal and civil liability as well as teaching other law enforcement topics as needed. Prior to beginning his career with the academy in 2015 he spent 27 years in law enforcement having worked all aspects from dispatch, criminal investigations to patrol and SRT commander. He holds an A.A.S from Texarkana College in Criminal Justice Administration, a B.S. in Criminal Justice minor in Juvenile Justice from Southern Arkansas University. He is a graduate of the 212th Session of the FBI National Academy as well as the University of Arkansas' School of Law Enforcement Supervision Session XIII. He currently holds a Professional Instructor, Firearms Instructor, Senior Police Officer as well as Level II Chief of Police Certifications through the State of Arkansas. Prior to beginning his career in Law Enforcement he was a member of the 82nd Airborne Division having served during the period of Operation Urgent Fury.