

Jon Blum
Vice President
FORCE CONCEPTS, Inc.

Jon Blum has more than 27 years of law enforcement and training experience with the Winston-Salem and Garner Police Departments and North Carolina Justice Academy. Assignments and responsibilities included uniform patrol, Field Training Officer, SWAT, recruiting, academy instructor, and public information officer. As the Basic Law Enforcement Training (or POST) Coordinator for the North Carolina Justice Academy, Jon managed all curriculum research, development, and revision efforts for the State mandated 600+ hour entry-level certification course.

Jon has testified in more than 100 civil cases (state and federal courts) as a police practices and use of force expert. Curriculums developed by Jon are POST approved in 28 states, and by the U.S. Department of Justice for police departments currently under a consent decree. His Documenting Force publication is used by more than 250k local, state and federal law enforcement officers.

Jon earned his Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice and Master's in Public Administration from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and Greensboro, respectively. Jon is a four-time marathon finisher who enjoys traveling, and street roller hockey. He lives in Raleigh, NC with his wife, Nicole; son Ryker; and daughter, Remy. Jon can be reached at jon.blum@force-concepts.com or linkedin.com/in/jonbblum.