

Instructor Bio – Kerry Mensior

Mr. Mensior is a Sergeant with the San Diego Police Department. Starting his career in the field of emergency services as a Firefighter, EMT and Hospital E.R. Technician, he changed career paths and has served as a police officer for over 29 years. His assignments have included working every patrol division in the City of San Diego, area station investigations, working undercover as a Vice Detective, the Financial Crimes Unit, being a Tactical Flight Officer in the helicopter unit, serving on the Department's Street Racing Enforcement Team (Drag-Net) and he is currently assigned to the Traffic Division's Accident Investigation Bureau where he is an Accident Reconstructionist and Field Supervisor.

He has served as a Field Training Officer, Field Evidence Technician, a nationally certified Drug Recognition Expert, Computer Forensics specialist and is the Department's Fake ID expert and Modified Vehicle Enforcement expert. He has received over 130 informal commendations, 11 Commanding Officer Citations, an Exceptional Performance Citation and a Life Saving Medal for rescuing three people from a burning building.

A graduate of the California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Master Instructor Certification Course (MICC-6), he has a long history as an educator and a Training Coordinator. Beginning his teaching career in the U.S. Navy while serving on submarines, he later achieved the coveted Master Training Specialist designation, ranking him in the top 5% of Naval Instructors. He went on to teach at three local colleges including two Police Academies. His wide range of expertise included 14 different subject areas including Constitutional Law, Forensics, Rules of Evidence, Community Relations, Leadership, Management, Task Force Operations, Officer Safety and Tactics. He has facilitated leadership and diversity training courses at the Holocaust Museum in Los Angeles and has traveled nationwide for the U.S. Dept. of Justice, training communities in policy making and a wide variety of law enforcement topics including Officer Safety, Tactics and Task Force Operations.

An international speaker and author, he has also created and developed curriculum for accredited college courses, corporate clients, national agencies including the U.S. Dept. of Justice and for international government agencies. His leadership, positive energy and compassion for students have earned him the "Most Outstanding and Inspirational Instructor" award from the Palomar Police Academy for four consecutive years.

Kerry's management expertise extends to the corporate world where he is the owner of both a manufacturing corporation and an agricultural equipment distribution company. He also serves as the Chief Grants Officer with EPrentice.com, an on-line training company that launched in 2016.

With his Communications Mastery and Public Speaking courses, you'll learn how to package your message, use voice, body & movement and how to effectively use story to share your wisdom. Remember elite speaking = elite performance.

Kerry offers a free gift to all Public Safety Professionals and their families: a Personality Assessment that will allow you the insight to communicate and parent at a deeper and richer level. MyBankCode.com/Victory

Kerry may be reached at Kerry@TheAudienceWhisperer.com