

Kyle Tilsley

Kyle has spent 28 years with the Maine State Police, the last 3 as Troop Commander of Troop B in the town of Gray, Maine. He has been the primary FTO for multiple Troopers in his career and was the Troop B FTO Supervisor for 8 years.

Kyle was a Trooper for 17 years, promoted to Sergeant in 2011 and promoted to Lieutenant in 2019. Since retirement, Kyle has continued to support officers with advice, wellness chats, and anything else they may need.

He continues to share his passion for the future generation by teaching several classes, and by working part-time for a local small department. When he is not working, he is enjoying adventures with his wife, their close friends, and family.
