

Mike has been with VirTra since September 2018. He served in the United States Navy as a Naval Aircrewman from 1987 to 1998. He was an Aircrew Flight Instructor, NATOPS Instructor and aircraft model manager. After his military service, Mike went to work for a federal law enforcement agency. During his tenure as a federal agent, he received numerous certifications to include Emergency Medical Technician, Combat Lifesaver, Firearms and Defensive Tactics Instructor, to name a few.

Mike worked at his agency's national academy, outside of Washington, D.C., as an instructor for firearms, less lethal, active shooter response, and pre-deployment training for agents working OCONUS. In September of 2018, Mike retired from federal service and began work as a VirTra Training Coordinator. Mike's background in training makes him an ideal match with VirTra's Company Core Values. As an Instructor of Instructors, Mike prides himself on being approachable and on his ability to solve problems for struggling students.
