Classroom Management & Student Behaviors

Thursday, August 12th 2021 | 9:00am – 10:00am PST

This course is designed to give experienced Law Enforcement Instructors a refresher of the basic fundamentals for preparing a classroom for teaching, identifying different student behaviors likely to be encountered, and provide useful techniques to address undesired behaviors in students.

Learning Objectives: by the end of the course

1. Students will know and demonstrate effective classroom setup and preparation.
2. Students will know and discuss sharing course performance expectations with students at the beginning of class.
3. Students will know different types of student behaviors and the criteria for solving unwanted behaviors.

RICHARD D. BRYAN

Richard D. Bryan has been in law enforcement since 1989. He has worked as a Patrolman, Field Training Officer, Patrol Supervisor, and Training Sergeant for local law enforcement. He also worked as a Law Enforcement instructor and Academy Manager and has been certified as a Police Instructor since 2000. He holds a Texas Master Peace Officer Certification, is a Certified Public Manager (CPM) through Texas State University, and earned a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice Leadership and Management from Sam Houston State University.

Richard retired as the Academy Manager for the Alamo Area Regional Law Enforcement Academy (AARLEA) where he headed state licensing courses and in-service training for the thirteen-county region in and around San Antonio until January 2018. Richard is a graduate of the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) Criminal Investigator Training Program and honorably retired as a Special Agent/Superintendent for the US Air Force Office of Special Investigations.

Richard was formally recognized for his dedication and high ideals to law enforcement by the City of Balcones Heights, Texas in 2004, and was presented the Chief's Award in 2017 from the Trinity University Police Department in San Antonio for his dedication and commitment to law enforcement training.

Richard continues his work in law enforcement and criminal justice through teaching for various organizations throughout Texas and the United States. He is the owner of Five-O Better Life, LLC. A private company, that among other ventures, continues to provide meaningful training to law enforcement personnel.
