

Mark Damitio, INCI, IICI

Accreditation and Grants Manager, IADLEST – Westfield, IN

Mark Damitio manages the Law Enforcement Academy and POST Agency Accreditation and Audits program for IADLEST and provides project management for the current USDOJ COPS Accreditation, the INL Colombia National Police Standards Center, Pan American Development Foundation Caribbean Law Enforcement Improvement and the USDOT NHTSA Below 100 grant projects. He also serves as the IADLEST webinar administrator. Mark collaborates with staff and partners on potential grant applications.

Mark began his involvement with law enforcement in 1971 with the Thurston County Sheriff's Office, Olympia, Washington, as a volunteer. In 1978, he was hired as a police officer by the Kent, Washington, Police Department. He graduated as the top academic student of the Seattle Police Academy class #104.

In 1982, he was appointed as the department Training Coordinator. From 1988 to 1997, Mark served with the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission beginning as an Assistant Training Coordinator and rising to Division Manager for In-service Training. In July 1997, he was appointed Deputy Director of the New Mexico Department of Public Safety Training & Recruiting Division where he administered the day-to-day operations of the New Mexico Law Enforcement Academy and was responsible for the licensing and POST compliance of ten satellite law enforcement academies. From 2004 to 2015, Mark was a Deputy Assistant Director at the Kansas Law Enforcement Training Center, where he was responsible for the Continuing Education program.

Mark is a graduate of the University of Washington with a bachelor's degree in Society and Justice. He is a graduate of the FBI Northwest Law Enforcement Command College and the Central States LEEDS. He holds Law Enforcement Executive Certifications from the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission and the New Mexico Law Enforcement Academy.