THE NCU EXPERIENCE

NCU is the premier nonprofit provider of online graduate education for adults.

The flexibility of online learning makes it ideal for working professionals. No need to miss work for classes – you complete your readings and assignments when it works for you. You can overlap courses to complete your program faster or take one course at a time.

Our online experience is unlike any other. At Northcentral, you will interact one-on-one with your professors, receiving meaningful feedback and direction on assignments and research projects. Every program, except for Marriage and Family Therapy, is 100% online, meaning you'll never have to commute or travel for classes. With no group assignments, you schedule your studies around your time and no one else's.

NCU offers over 50 programs in business, technology, education, psychology, social work, health sciences, marriage and family therapy, and, soon, law. Each program has numerous professionally relevant specializations.

Northcentral University is proud to offer current IADLEST employees, members and member organizations the opportunity to earn a quality online master's or doctoral degree from Northcentral University at a preferred tuition rate that is 25% less than the current published tuition rate*.
